

Mira helps her best friend Noor who is having some trouble at school...

Noor and the Mean Behavior

AIMED AT 4-6 YEARS OLDS

Hello I am Mira.

I am worried about my best friend Noor because I think she is sad.

Are you okay
Noor?

No, Mira I am very unhappy
at school.

I started thinking of ways I could help Noor...

When suddenly,
a small orange
dragon appeared!

“Hello Mira, I am a magic dragon and I help children with their problems.”

“Wow!”

“Hello magic dragon. I am worried about my best friend Noor,” I said.

“Come, let us find Noor,
climb on my head.”

Said the magic dragon.

The magic dragon grew very big and used its powers to become invisible.

It was so exciting!

We do not want to play
with Noor

We flew to Noor's school.
Noor was sitting all alone.

None of the other children
wanted to play with Noor..

“Go and be a good friend and help Noor,” said the magic dragon.

I ran over to Noor
and the bully...

“Stop being so unkind to my friend Noor! You would not like it if someone was unkind to you!”

?!

“We are going to tell the teacher as bullying is wrong!”

“Thank you for being brave and helping me Mira, now we must go and tell the teacher.” said Noor.

The bully looked sad and said sorry to Noor

It is good to help your friends and make sure they are okay.

Then, in the sky, above
our heads, we saw the magic dragon!

As he flew away, the
magic dragon shouted,

“You do not
need me anymore!
You have fixed Noor's problems, by being good friends, helping each other and telling the teacher!”

“Remember, you must always ask for help if you need it...”

Then the magic dragon disappeared into the sky

Noor smiled and said, “It felt so good to be able to tell you about my feelings. Thank you for helping me and being my best friend Mira!”
