Hello, my name is Mira

My brother Ali and I were playing today.

We found a pot of gold in the garden!

We thought about all of the things
we could buy...

Because we found the gold...

Mum and Dad said we could decide what to do with it...

Yay!

They said we must think about sharing the gold with other children who are less fortunate

An illustration of two children, a boy and a girl, looking at a large basket filled with gold coins. The boy is on the left, and the girl is on the right. The girl is wearing a red mushroom-shaped hat with white spots. The background is dark with some gold sparkles. Two speech bubbles are present: one on the left and one on the right.

“We found the gold, why must we share it?”

“We do not want to share the gold,”

“Mira
are you awake?”

“Yes
Ali”

That night we could not sleep...

We kept thinking that we should not be so selfish and be more caring towards others

“Ali...I did not sleep last night...because I think we should share the gold with children who do not have as much as we do...”

ME TOO!
We must tell Mum and Dad.

We told Mum and Dad we wanted to share the gold with other children

Mum and Dad were so proud of us

It feels so good to share and help others
